By TOM OCHILTREE

LONDON (AP) — Britain sided with President Kennedy today in a disagreement developing between the United States and West Germany on the Berlin question.

U.S. Ambassador David Bruce called at the Foreign Office at his own request and conferred for half an hour with Foreign Secretary Lord Home.

A Foreign Office spokesman told newsmen Britain has been fully consulted on the line taken by the Americans in discussions with the Soviet Union over Berlin and fully agrees with it.

The comment came after West German Chancellor Konrad Adenauer had clearly revealed his concern at the direction the American-Soviet talks are taking. He said in Berlin Monday any negotiations must not lead to any form of recognition of Communist East Germany.

It also coincided with instructions to Wilhelm Grewe, West Germany's ambassador in Washington, to return to Bonn this week-end for consultations. Adenauer said it is planned to replace Grewe.

Grove does not hit it off well with Kennedy and his administration has taken to bypassing him in its diplomatic contacts with Bonn, informed sources have reported.

The American-West German disagreement revolves around suggestions advanced by Secretary of State Dean Rusk for a 13-nation authority to govern the access routes to isolated West Berlin.

Adenauer's government objects to the proposal on the ground that it would open the way to diplomatic recognition of Communist East Germany. In the suggested access authority, East and West Germans would sit together in a high level international body.

As diplomats in London understand it, Adenauer's government does not object to the principle of internationalizing the Berlin access routes, but does not like the idea of sitting with the East Germans as equals.

The East Germans also reject the idea. East German leader Walter Ulbricht said in a Moscow interview published Monday his regime never will accept international control.

No Takers for Eastern Flight

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The Capital Citizens Council, apparently rebuffed by a lack of takers in its "Freedom Flights North" regroups here tonight in a strategy session.

Amis Guthridge, president of the Little Rock segregationist council, said no Negroes have taken up an offer to fly two families to the President's summer home in Hyannis Port, Mass.

The plan originally scheduled a flight today from Little Rock to Boston where the two Negro families were to go by bus to Hyannis Port.

The President's brother, Edward, took up the cry in Massachusetts and arranged aid for the prospective emigrants.

Guthridge said the council had received numerous requests for free one-way passage to California but none for Hyannis Port.

4 Young Robins With One Thought---Lunch!

YESTERDAY THE EDITOR WAS FOUR FEET FROM A nestful of young robins — and made the above picture.

OUR HEADLINE SUITS THE PICTURE — BUT IT ISN'T quite true. The young birds have their mouths wide open, but actually they are gulping in air to offset a hot spring day.

THE PRUNING SHEARS SNIPPED AWAY A SMALL branch to make way for the camera — and instantly the young birds hid their heads, showing nothing but a downy bed of feathers.

WHILE THE CAMERA-SHOOTING WAS GOING ON BOTH adult robins killed time with food dangling from their beaks, and as soon as the photographer finished they lit upon the nest and gave each of their hopefuls a nourishing "shot."

WHERE DID ALL THIS HAPPEN? IN HOPE YESTERDAY — but that's all we can tell you — part of the bargain by which we got the picture tip, to preserve a secret from destructive small fry.

2 of 3 Never Graduate in Arkansas

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Two of every three students who enter Arkansas public schools never graduate from high school, an Education Department survey shows.

Arch Ford, education commissioner, said the figures point out the need for an industrial training program, for which plans already are underway.

"There is already a great reservoir of untrained people in our state who are in dire need of training so they can secure and hold a job in industry and business," Ford said, and the reservoir is growing annually.

The Board of Education, in a meeting in Little Rock Sunday, reviewed recommendations for the curriculum for a second Vocational Technical School at Morrilton. Ford said a contract will be let for construction of the school in the near future.

A similar school is located in Pine Bluff. Thompson Pound, chairman of a Board of Education subcommittee which toured industrial training facilities in 10 states, said Arkansas' school was the best he has seen.

Ford noted that much industrial training must be done by industry itself. "But this is no argument for delaying the development of at least a reasonably adequate industrial training program," he said.

14.3 Million Bales From 1961 Crop

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Agriculture Department's final estimates today put the 1961 cotton crop at 14,318,000 bales of 500 pounds gross weight and cottonseed production at 5,987,000 tons.

These figures compared with 14,272,000 bales for the 1960 crop of cotton and 5,896,000 tons of cottonseed from that crop. Cotton production averaged 13,553,000 bales for the ten-year (1950-59) average.

The department said the combined value of cotton and cottonseed from last year's crop was $2,404 million for the 1960 crop; $2,653 million, up 10 per cent from $2,404 million for the 1960 crop.

A total of 16,598,000 acres was planted to the 1961 crop compared with 16,080,000 for the 1960 crop. The harvested acreage for last year's crop was 15,634,000 compared with 15,399,000 for the 1960 crop.

The yield of lint cotton per harvested acre last year was 438 pounds compared with 416 in 1960 and 362 for the ten-year average.

The department said Arkansas harvested 1,360,000 acres of cotton last year, got a yield of 512 pounds per harvested acre, and had a total production of 1,456,000 bales.

Teacher Honored

NEW YORK (AP) — Miss Christine Poindexter, Little Rock, Ark., Central High School mathematics instructor, was selected Monday for the 1962 National Teacher of the Year honor role. She was one of nine teachers selected by the U. S. Office of Education, the president of Arkansas State School Officers and Look magazine.

Will Study Teaching of Mental Cases

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The Education Department is conducting a pilot study to determine whether or more mentally retarded children can be taught by special teachers in regular public schools.

The first step will be a census of mentally retarded students. Education Commissioner Arch Ford said, so the districts can be informed how many such students they have and how many special teachers will be needed to train them.

Ford said the study could result in a recommendation to the 1963 legislature for funds to help carry out a program.

The commissioner said there is a need for the Childrens Colony at Conway, but that most retarded children must be cared for in public schools.

"It is much less expensive and enables the children to stay home with their parents," he said. "The problem must be met head-on by public schools. Teachers must be trained and local board must be encouraged to place such programs in their budgets."

At present there are about 60 special education teachers in the state and the Education Department has $270,000 annually to spend on training the retarded.

Didn't Do It, Faubus Declares

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Gov. Orval E. Faubus said today he had nothing to do with a ban on political speaking at the University of Arkansas.

"I never heard of it until I read about it in the papers," Faubus said.

At least one gubernatorial candidate, Vernon Whitten of Mount Holly, has criticized the ban, invoked by the university board of trustees.

Whitten said the move was designed to keep his son, Horace, and Sandy McMath, son of former governor Sid McMath, from forming campus organizations to support their fathers.

"I don't know what that's supposed to mean," Faubus said today.

"My boy (Farrell) is up there, too,"

Faubus said he had no campaign plans to announce.

He was asked about editorial criticism of the statement with which he announced for a fifth term. Some writers said it appeared weak because he mentioned that he might be defeated.

"Whenever you are in bad shape and can be defeated, you might as well face facts," Faubus said. The governor then explained that he felt he could be defeated, but he did not feel he was in bad shape politically.

Kennedy to Oppose Unjustified Demand for Wage Increases

Reds Chasing Royal Troops in Viet Nam

By ANTOIN YARED

VIENTIANE, Laos (AP) — The Defense Ministry announced tonight pro-Communist forces are chasing remnants of the royal garrison of Nam Tha southwestward on the road toward Houei Sai, the government's last stronghold in northern Laos.

Government forces who were crushed in a three-hour battle Monday at their rendezvous point at Vieng Phou Kha, which is 40 miles southwest of Nam Tha, a communique said.

As a result, it added, troops withdrew farther toward Houei Sai, a garrison town opposite the northern tip of pro-Western Thailand.

Though the United States had denied previous reports that Red China was involved, the Defense Ministry declared the pursuing forces included both Red Chinese and Communist North Vietnamese. Acting Foreign Minister Sisouk Nachampassak said rebel Pathet Lao troops were within 20 miles of Houei Sai. He declared the pro-Communists want to occupy the whole north of the country.

ESD Drive to Recruit Farm Worker

The Arkansas Employment Security Division is undertaking an intensified recruiting campaign during May to secure domestic farm workers for the cotton growing areas of Eastern Arkansas.

ESD Administrator J. L. Bland, announced.

A shortage of 9,500 cotton choppers is anticipated by May 15th. Special farm placement recruiters have been hired in nine Arkansas cities, including Hope, to conduct this special program.

Teddy Jones, Hope ESD Manager, said that if sufficient domestic workers are secured to chop the Arkansas cotton crop that it will eliminate the necessity of importing Mexican Nationals under the Bracero program, as has been done during past years. We much prefer to use Arkansas labor and keep Arkansas dollars in our own state, he continued.

Jones said that Harvey G. Vann had been hired as special farm recruiter for Hempstead, Howard Nevada and Lafayette counties.

Work is expected to be available around May 15. In addition to recruiting for Eastern Arkansas Vann is giving first priority to local orders for farm workers in the Ozan, Hope and Bradley area.

Family heads, crew leaders and individuals interested in obtaining farm employment of any nature, whether it be cotton, berries, tomatoes, should meet with Mr. Vann.

The ESD recruitment schedule for Hempstead, Nevada, Lafayette area is as follows:

- May 9: 8-10, Hope, Employment office
- 11-12, Columbus, Post Office
- 1-2, Washington, Post Office
- 3-4, Ozan, Post Office
- May 10: 9-10, Willisville, Post Office
- 11-12, Roston, Post Office

President Off Soon After Talk

Hughes to Be Allowed to Buy Airline

WASHINGTON (AP) — A Civil Aeronautics Board examiner ruled today that Hughes Tool Co. (Toolco) should be allowed to acquire control of Northeast Airlines.

Under newly adopted procedures of the CAB, the initial decision of examiner Merrill Ruhlman will become effective within 30 days, unless a petition for review by the board itself is filed by one of the parties.

The examiner said the acquisition should be approved subject to certain reporting restrictions and limitations on commercial transactions between Northeast and Toolco.

The examiner found that:

1. Northeast will collapse and cease operations unless financial assistance is made available immediately.
2. No assistance is available to Northeast either in the form of temporary government subsidy or in reorganization under the bankruptcy law.
3. The record will not support a finding that Toolco has engaged in improper or unlawful activities in relationships with either Trans World Airlines or Northeast. Toolco already owns 78 per cent of TWA, but its stock now is held in a neutral voting trust.
4. Toolco has not unlawfully acquired control of Northeast.
5. Control of Northeast by Toolco will not restrain competition.

The board started an inquiry in July 1960 to determine whether Howard Hughes, Toolco or TWA had acquired control of Northeast. Hughes, a Texas industrialist, is owner of the Hughes Tool Co.

Later the board consolidated the application of Toolco, Northeast and Atlas Corp. for approval for transfer of control of Northeast from Atlas to Toolco.

Stage Set for Merger of Railways

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Pennsylvania Railroad stockholders today overwhelmingly approved merger of the nation's biggest carrier with the New York Central.

ALBANY, N.Y. (AP) — The stage was set today for stockholder endorsement of a history-making merger of the nation's rail giants, the New York Central and Pennsylvania railways.

Central and Pennsylvania stockholders were expected to approve the proposed merger at separate annual meetings here and in Philadelphia. About 1,000 shareholders, including 700 traveling by special train from Manhattan, gathered to participate in the Central meeting in Albany.

Economic urgency underscored the historic proposal and all signs pointed to strong support from stockholders of both roads. Railroad officials have estimated a merger could produce joint operating savings of $75 million a year.

The officials agreed last Jan. 1 that merger was the best way to combat rising costs and competition from the trucking industry.

Approval by the Interstate Commerce commission is needed, as well as that of the stockholders. Railway unions and some public officials worried about monopoly have closed ranks against it.

Union spokesmen say a merger could shrink the number of jobs available. Public officials, fearing monopoly, point to the prospect of a Pennsylvania New York Central Transportation Co. worth $5 billion with 120,000 employees and a 20,000-mile rail network.

President Aims for U. S. Wage, Price Stability

ATLANTIC CITY, N.J. (AP) — President Kennedy told labor today that unjustified wage demands which require price increases are as much against the national interest as unjustified profit demands which require price increases.

He said, "I speak with a single voice to the men on both sides of the nation's bargaining tables when I say that your sense of responsibility — the responsibility of both labor and management to the general public — is the foundation on which our hopes must build for the survival and success of the free enterprise system."

The President, in a speech prepared for the United Auto Workers convention, said the administration would not undertake to fix prices and wages in a peacetime economy but that it must define goals and point out the national interest.

"But we possess and seek no powers of compulsion," added Kennedy, saying the government must mainly rely on the voluntary efforts of labor and business to make certain the national interest is preserved.

Thus within a month of his successful battle to force Big Steel to roll back its price increases, Kennedy has advised labor the same standard will be applied to wage increases — the public interest.

But has he tried to soothe businessmen's concern over his steel price tactics eight days ago when he spoke to the U.S. Chamber of Commerce, Kennedy today at Atlantic City.

Algerians Angered by Terror Killing

By BERNARD J. LAVALLÉE

ALGIERS (AP) — Angered over the wave of terror killings since the March 18 cease-fire, the Algerian rebel government will broadcast orders to Moslems Wednesday that may call for wiping out the European Secret Army Organization.

The scheduled broadcast from Tunis by rebel President Ben Youssef Ben Khedda reflected the mounting fury of Algerian leaders over the daily slaughter of Moslems in Algiers and Oran by European terrorists.

A rebel spokesman said Ben Khedda would announce directives to put into effect the cease-fire agreement signed by France and the Algerian nationalists at Evian Les Bains, France. He said they might deal with liquidation of the secret army.

The European terrorists resumed their attacks early today, killing 16 Moslems in Algiers and wounding 11 others within a few hours. One European also was wounded.

The rising Moslem anger was illustrated Monday when a mob of several hundred surged out of the Algiers Casbah, rampaged through downtown streets and stabbed one European to death before riot police controlled them.

At the end of the day, with 30 dead and 29 wounded by terrorists in Algeria, the rebel command in Tunis protested that the secret army was trying to starve the Moslems by keeping wage earners cooped up in the Casbah and preventing anyone from bringing in food.

The rebels have accused the French government of dealing too softly with the secret army.

tempted to allay labor's concern over the administration's close patrolling of wage contracts. He told the chamber, "We do not want the added burden of determining individual prices for individual products."

He said much the same thing to the auto workers.

"We have no intention of intervening in every labor dispute. We are neither able nor willing to substitute our judgment for the judgment of those who sit at every local bargaining table in the country."

Kennedy told the UAW delegates the "same responsibility for a noninflationary and peaceful settlement applies both to you and management in your forthcoming negotiations in the aircraft and missile industry."

On the eve of Kennedy's speech, UAW President Walter Reuther hurried out a statement confirming that the union's collective bargaining policy conforms with Kennedy's economic stability goals.

It came out one day after Reuther appeared to be bucking against the administration's appeals to keep pay raises closely geared to rises in productivity. The UAW chief told the convention Sunday that wages for workers should rise faster than gains in productivity.

By NORMAN WALKER

ATLANTIC CITY, N.J. (AP)—President Kennedy may try today to allay labor union complaints over his economic restraint policies just as he attempted a week ago to dispel business fears.

"The President was expected to devote his address at the United Auto Workers Union convention to spelling out further the goals of his administration to maintain wage-price stability in the face of mounting foreign trade competition and U.S. defense commitments."

Kennedy comes to a gathering of 2,000 worker delegates who for four days have heard UAW President Walter Reuther warmly praise administration policies generally but sharply criticize them in many particulars.

Despite these criticisms, Reuther issued an urgent statement Monday night saying the collective bargaining policy of the UAW conforms with Kennedy's economic stability goals.

It was reliably reported that Reuther had been in touch with the White House before issuing the statement, which said the union's policy is and always has been to achieve wage increases and fringe benefits "out of the higher productivity of the American economy and not out of the pockets of consumers through higher prices."

The UAW position was seen as essentially academic, since its new 3 year contracts run until 1964. However, the union is presently engaged in negotiations with aircraft - missile manufacturers in which the Kennedy stability formula is a factor.

A week ago today the President, speaking to the U.S. Chamber of Commerce annual meeting, said he was striving to preserve a stable economic climate that would keep the government out of price-fixing. It was his first appearance before a business organization after prevailing on the steel industry to cancel a price increase.

The steel experience stirred criticism among businessmen, but labor unions, including Reuther's auto workers, have been at least as rebellious over Kennedy's wage restraint formula.

This generally seeks to limit wage increases to gains in productivity. Reuther told his convention that until wage income reaches "a healthy balance" with industry profits, pay rates should rise faster than production efficiency increases.

Guards Plan Is Having Trouble

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Plans to reorganize the National Guard have run into difficulty, Gov. Orval E. Faubus said today.

"The reports are encouraging," Faubus said. "I don't think they'll be able to go through with plans to reduce strength of the Guard."

Governors of most states have expressed opposition to a recent Pentagon decision to drastically reduce Guard strength and to reorganize many units.

Faubus was among them.

The governor said his belief that the reorganization would not go through was based on newspaper accounts of developments and his conversations in Wash-

Boggs to Be Opposed in Louisiana

By CARL P. LEUBSDORF

NEW ORLEANS, La. (AP)—An announcement by supermarket owner John G. Schwegmann Jr. that he will oppose Rep. Hale Boggs for renomination loomed today as a key Deep South test for the Kennedy administration.

Schwegmann, 50, announced for the July 28 Democratic primary in Louisiana's 2nd District against Boggs just one day after New Orleans gave President Kennedy a warm welcome here Friday.

Boggs is the House Democratic whip and the administration's most loyal supporter in the Louisiana congressional delegation. Schwegmann assailed Boggs as a rubber stamp for the administration and asserted that if a change is not made from "such men as Mr. Boggs and long-haired Harvard advisors, our country will be bankrupt."

Schwegmann's candidacy will provide a rallying point for segregationists and Kennedy administration opponents. Although a political neophyte, Schwegmann is well-known in the area because of his four vast supermarkets. He made his first political race a success last year when he was elected state representative in a special election in Jefferson Parish (county), which includes most New Orleans suburbs.

Schwegmann is the second candidate to enter the race against Boggs. Stuart A. McClendon, 26, an attorney, announced his candidacy last November and has been campaigning with the support of the Conservative Political Association.

Boggs, 49 and a veteran of 20 years in Congress, has been under fire from the right here since his vote in February 1961 to increase the size of the House Rules Committee. The move was made to break the hold of a conservative coalition on the committee, and Boggs' vote was seen as anti-South.

AP&L Report an Increase in Revenues

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Arkansas Power and Light Co., now with 308,000 customers in the state, said in its annual report to stockholders this week total revenues were up $1.7 million in 1961.

The firm said the gain was made despite a four per cent decrease in sales due to curtailed production of the state's aluminum industry.

The report set total electric revenues at $68.5 million. It said AP&L gained 6,300 new customers last year.

Net income was reported at $11.2 million, an increase of $400,000 over that of 1960. Total investment of the firm was listed at $351 million at the end of 1961.

The report also dealt with the state economy, noting that 70 new or expanded industries to come within AP&L's service area during 1961 resulted in 4,100 new jobs.

The 348,000 kilowatt Helena Steam Electric generating station, completed at a cost of $50 million, was the firm's largest single development during the year. Four high-voltage sub-stations were completed, expanding 19 existing power distribution centers.

AP&L said it spent $20 million on construction and expansion costs during the year.

Other features of the report included listings of:

Earnings per share of common stock at $1.65, compared to 1.53 in 1960.

Dividends of $1.12 per share during the past two years.

Total income of $68,674,121 and cost of doing business of $57,700,926.

Future expansion and net income for dividends were $11,173,185; preferred dividends were $1,154,720 and common dividends, $6,787,200.

The report said the average residential customer used 2,678 kilowatt hours of electricity in 1961 and the average commercial customer, 15,120. This compares with the 1960 residential figure of 2,678 and the commercial figure of 14,519.

Little Orphan Annie Lives Again!

By HELEN WORDEN ERSKINE

Dear Helen: My parents are separated and I live in the country with an aunt and uncle who give me everything but love. I am almost 17 and a Junior in High School. Summer time I work on the farm to help pay my board and keep. I plow, haul wheat and milk the cows—everything to be done on a farm. I also try to keep the house in order because my aunt works. But neither of the boys (my two cousins) help nor do my aunt and uncle make them. They all treat me as if I were Little Orphan Annie.

When I want to go anywhere they put me through the third degree and we would like you to settle it for us. I am getting reason to doubt me. What should I do when my uncle starts griping about the money I cost him?

What should I do about everything? I'm so unhappy. —D.

Dear D.: It is what you do, not what your relatives do, which is important. So long as you are doing your very best and by the work you do, paying your way, your conscience is clear and this is all that matters. Regard your bitter experience as an apprenticeship to life. When your aunt and uncle and the boys are unkind, ignore them. The small-minded person would be crushed, and develops character. From your letter I would say you are already developing character.

Dear Helen: A family argument they put me through the third degree and we would like you to settle it for us. I am getting reason to doubt me. What should I do when my uncle starts griping about the money I cost him?

Suggestions on Improving University

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Two college professors studied the credit rating and debt structure of Arkansas and came up with five suggestions for their improvement.

Dr. Vincent E. Cangelosi, assistant professor of business at the University of Arkansas, and Dr. Joseph M. Bonin, associate professor of economics at Auburn University, reported their findings in the winter issue of "the Arkansas Economist," a U. of A. magazine.

The two professors said Arkansas has an "AA" rating in Moody's Municipal and Government Manual, on which investors rely heavily. Top rating in the manual is "AAA."

Availability of loans and the amount of interest are affected by the ratings.

Suggestions of the professors included:

1. Eliminate or amend the debt limitation so the state can borrow in its own name without ratification by voters. This would allow the state to make maximum use of its credit.

2. Discontinue, or place into the hands of one agency, all indirect borrowing. Indirect debt is incurred in the name of a state agency, such as a college. Direct debt is incurred in the name of the state with its full faith and credit incurred.

3. Discontinue pledging of specific taxes to the payment of individual bond issues.

4. Provide that all bond issues may carry only the full faith and credit pledge of the state and that all taxes levied are available to pay debts.

5. Provide that debt be serviced by general funds especially set aside, but stipulate that in case of imminent default, the treasurer would be authorized to use any tax funds for payment.

The professors said that the debt structure of the state is too complex and it is hard for investors to keep up with 15 borrowing agencies. These agencies, they said, have $34,826,160 worth of indirect debt, not rated with the state debt.

They were critical of pledging matron of honor. Since I cannot afford this expense so soon after my own marriage, may I refuse? My future husband will be an usher. Does this make any difference? —Broke

Dear Broke: Nothing is as important as your relation to your sister. Accept her invitation if you have to wear a barrel. Clothes are secondary. Be a true sister. What others think is inconsequential. No one will remember in years to come whether you wore an old, or new dress. In this case, it's the deed, not the garb, which counts. But, as far as that goes, if you can't afford the proper gown, rent or make it. Since your husband is to be an usher, all the more reason for you doing your part.

Dear Helen: I like your column but sometimes you step on my toes, as you did recently when you discouraged a girl from accepting gifts that are very personal, like clothes. I gave my girl a sweater and skirt, not because I expect to get privileges but because I want her to look beautiful for me. As soon as I am in the fiancé class financially, we plan to marry. You make my gifts seem both immoral and incorrect. —John

Dear John: I apologize for stepping on your toes but still maintain that a girl should not accept gifts of wearing apparel or expensive jewelry from her boyfriend. It immediately puts their relationship on another basis. Nonetheless, I like the manly spirit of your letter. The girl is lucky.

U of A Policy on Politics Is Criticized

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—The University of Arkansas decision to ban political rallies on campus drew fire from gubernatorial candidate Vernon H. Whitten of Mount Holly Saturday.

Whitten accused the university board of trustees of trying to stop specific taxes for debts, saying the practice could lead to the setting aside of the same revenue to pay more than one bond.

Moody's the economists said, relies heavily on per capita income and debt history in establishing ratings. They said Arkansas' defaulting of two issues during Reconstruction days and its low per capita income apparently are responsible for the state's not having an "AAA" rating.

Whitten said he thought, "wholesome, educational political discussions of candidates and issues are a necessary part of modern education."

Warehouse receipts for tobacco became the first "paper money" in the American colonies, and was used to pay taxes. Teachers and clergymen were paid in tobacco. A wedding ceremony cost 200 pounds of leaf, a funeral service 400 pounds.

Houston Player Turns on His Ex-Teammates

By MIKE RATHET Associated Press Sports Writer

Turnabout, which has always been considered fair play, was bound to happen after the National League stocked its new clubs through a player draft. And the No. 1 "turnout" had to be Houston's Bob Aspromonte.

The infielder, playing against his former Los Angeles teammates for the first time this season, stroked three hits and drove in the winning runs with a three-run homer in a 9-6 Colt triumph Monday night that continued the Dodgers' nose dive.

Grabbed by the Colt for $3,000 in the expansion draft last October, Aspromonte, now 23, was the chief executioner among the cast of castoffs who combined to hand the Dodgers their fifth defeat in the last eight games.

The skid has cost the Dodgers 4½ games in the NL pennant chase. Nine days ago they were only a half game out of first place. Now they're five back of pace-setting San Francisco, idle Monday as everyone in the majors was but the Dodgers and Colts.

Aspromonte crashed the crusher in the seventh off rookie Pete Richter (1-1) with two out. Former Dodger Norm Larker walked with one out to get things started. An out later Hal Smith singled to bring up Aspromonte, who drove one 300 feet into the left field seats for an 8-6 lead.

Aspromonte's homer gave reliever Bob Telford all the work left in the inning. But Johnny Weekly's homer in the eighth, which had the Dodgers trailing 1-0, allowed only one hit in three innings.

The Dodgers will be at Houston again tonight as all 20 teams head back into action.

The first-place Giants invade St. Louis for a three-game set with the second-place Cardinals while the American League pace-setting New York Yankees are home for a two-game series with Boston.

The Indians will be at Minnesota, Kansas City at Baltimore, Detroit at Los Angeles and Chicago at Washington in other AL games. Piling out the NL program are Philadelphia at Cincinnati, New York at Chicago and Pittsburgh at Milwaukee.

Meanwhile, managers will be making last-minute decisions on which players to trim from their rosters to reach the mandatory 25-player limit by the Thursday midnight deadline.

In transactions Monday, the White Sox optioned one-time 22-game winner Herb Soto to Indianapolis, the Tigers sold outfielder George Ahisk to Kansas City and sent pitcher Terry Fox to their Denver farm club, and the Cardinals optioned pitcher Paul Tolt to Atlanta.

Plans to Fly Out Negroes Hit a Snag

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—The proposal of a Little Rock segregationist group to fly two Negro families to Hyannis Port, Mass., summer home of President Kennedy, hit a snag today.

There are no applicants for the flight.

Amis Guthridge, president of the Capital Citizens Council which is sponsoring both freedom flights and rides, had set May 8 as the tentative date for two families to be sent to Hyannis Port.

Guthridge said today a number of Negroes had responded to the council's offer to pay for one-way rides, but most wanted to go to California.

Until the Hyannis Port offer is filled, Guthridge said, all rides are being held in abeyance.

The council's offer attracted national attention and scorn from both Ted Kennedy, the president's younger brother, and the Americans for Democratic Action.

Kennedy, who had been asked by the council to escort the families from Boston to Hyannis Port, met today with civic groups interested in aiding Negro families.

A National Resource

You've seen this symbol many times in advertisements—sponsored by this newspaper or one of its advertisers—urging us to support our schools and institutions of higher education, buy United States Savings Bonds, help Smokey the Bear prevent forest fires.

Did you realize it was all part of a great voluntary national plan of American business and industry to use advertising for important projects in the public interest?

We congratulate our advertisers and we are proud, ourselves to be a part of this great national resource. Published as a public service in cooperation with The Advertising Council.

Japs Appeal for Nuclear Test Ban

TOKYO (AP)—The Japanese government has appealed again to the 17-nation Geneva disarmament conference to strive for a nuclear test ban treaty.

The appeal was delivered May 2 through Japanese embassies in the conference countries, the Foreign Office said.

Aid Fund Upped
GENEVA, Switzerland (AP)—Funds totaling $7,804,509 are sought by the World Council of Churches' division of interchurch aid, refugee and world service in its 1962 program, an increase of $2,338,374 over the amount requested last year.

relocated in his state. But he denounced the action of the council in sponsoring rides.

The ADA denounced the rides as "sordid, vindictive and callous."

Kennedy, a candidate for the Democratic nomination for U.S. Senator, called the meeting today after the announcement of the Little Rock council, but said attempts would be made to aid any families who accept one-way bus rides from the south to Boston.

A spokesman for Kennedy said two contractors in Massachusetts have promised jobs to the fathers of the two Little Rock families that were due to arrive.

Other organizations were seeking housing arrangements and supplies of food for the families.

Fishing Report Is Unchanged

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—The state Game and Fish Commission reports fishing conditions around the state are unchanged today.

Stock Ponds Can Get Out of Balance

When a farm pond is five years old or older, chances are the population is out of balance. "And chances are your fishing success can be improved," Calvin Caldwell suggests. Out of balance means more sunfish are there than should be, with a lesser amount of bass. "If all the sunfish caught are barely large enough to keep and very few bass are caught, it is time to do something," Mr. Caldwell advises.

What to do? Perhaps you would want to eradicate the entire population and restock. By removing all the fish and restocking you can be assured of a balanced population in your pond.

Recommendations: Five per cent powdered rotenone is recommended as a fish poison. It is used at the rate of three pounds per acre foot, or if bullhead catfish are present, four pounds per surface acre foot.

The powdered rotenone should be mixed with water to form a thin paste. This paste is scattered over the surface of the water. If the pond is large (two acres or more) an outboard motor can be used to stir the water.

The best time to use rotenone is during July, August and the first two weeks in September. During this period the water is very warm. The rotenone acts very quickly in warm water and loses its toxicity quickly in warm water, also.

"Fish showing signs of distress can be observed within a period of 20 to 25 minutes after rotenone is applied," Mr. Caldwell says. More detailed information is available at the County Agent's office.

More Testimony In Milk Case

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—The chairman of the board of Dean Milk Co., testified here Monday the price of milk his company bought from the Central Arkansas Milk Producers Association for resale in Memphis and other areas was the same price quoted from producers in Chicago.

Sam Dean of Chicago was on the stand all day as testimony continued in the Federal Trade Commission hearing on charges that CAMPA and its secretary-manager David L. Parr engaged in a conspiracy to restrain or eliminate trade and sold milk to certain processors at discriminatory prices.

CAMPA has contended that the specific actions that resulted in FTC charges were done in order to meet competition.

Dean was expected to take the stand when the hearing resumes today before examiner Herman Tocker of Washington. The hearing is in its seventh week.

The FTC at Washington has not yet ruled on a motion filed by CAMPA attorney Stuart Russell of Oklahoma City asking for an extended recess of the case.

Elections in Several States Today

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Light turnouts are expected for the most part today as voters in Ohio, Florida, Indiana, West Virginia and New Mexico choose party nominees in primary elections.

Only in Florida, which had some of the hardest fought primary campaigns, were record crowds anticipated. Attention also was focused on Florida for a possible voter reaction to President Kennedy's proposed Social Security financing of medical care for the aged.

Candidates were seeking gubernatorial nominations in Ohio and New Mexico, U.S. senatorial nominations in Ohio and Florida and 4 House seat nominations in the five states.

Sen. Frank J. Lausche of Ohio and Sen. George Smathers of Florida both appeared certain of renomination in the Democratic primaries in their states.

Ohio Democrats also were expected to favor Gov. Michael Y. DiSalle for a second four-year term despite a determined primary bid by State Atty. Gen. Mark McElroy.

Ohio State Auditor James A. Rhodes appeared to have the lead in the Republican gubernatorial primary. John Marshall Briley, a Toledo executive, was the leading candidate in the GOP Senate race.

Ohio voters also will choose nominees for congressman at large. State Rep. Robert Taft Jr. is rated a heavy favorite over State Sen. Thomas Lowell Fess in the GOP primary. Both are sons of late U.S. senators. Eleven candidates vied for the Democratic nomination.

Musial Busy Setting New Records

By JACK HAND Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK (AP)—Stan Musial is so busy rewriting the record book that it is easy to forget he is hitting .37 with a pennant-contending ball club.

"The next two weeks will be a tough battle for us," said the 41-year-old Cardinal outfielder by telephone from St. Louis. "We play the Giants three straight starting tonight and then the Dodgers three in a row. After that we turn right around and play the same clubs six straight on the Coast. But we'll be battling them."

"All of us think that the trade for Bobby Shantz is going to help our club."

Musial brought home two baseballs from Cincinnati that will go in his trophy rack. They represented his feat of tying and then beating the National League record for most games played.

Sometime during the next few days, Musial will bring home another baseball. It will represent his 3,430th base hit, tying the league record set by the late Honus Wagner.

The magic number is five for Musial to tie the record. In the old days that was work of a couple of games. Now it might take slightly longer.

"Somehow I'm not worked up about it as much as when I was getting close to 3,000 hits," said Musial. "Maybe it will be different the closer I get. If I get a couple early maybe I can break this one at home."

Musial already has broken two National League records this season, most games played and runs scored. The total hit record is next.
